Dear [Redacted]

Your thoughtful letter of November 23, 1959 was sent to me by our mutual friend and it was good to hear from you.

I will ask our people to check into the subject you raised and you may be sure we will do what we can to resolve the situation. We of course share your concern over any actions which result from a failure to recognize the true nature and objectives of the communist conspiracy.

I am looking forward to our next meeting here or in Europe.

With all good wishes

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
Director

November 25th 1959.

Dear Allen,

I am forwarding to you herewith a personal letter (contents unknown to me) from our friend [redacted]

It is only because I know him so well, that I am not hesitating to comply with his request, as I might otherwise be afraid of assuming unknown responsibilities!

Please do not bother to acknowledge this scribbled note.

Yours sincerely,

[redacted]
